MORNING VISIT - Biggin Hill Memorial Museum, Gardens, and Chapel

"Inspiring Generations, Remembering the Few and Honouring the Many"

BHMM tells the story of Britain's most famous fighter station, in particular its role during the Second World War. The museum is on the same site as St George's RAF Chapel of Remembrance, built in 1951 to preserve the legacy of those who served and died at Biggin Hill during the Second World War. The tranquil Garden of Remembrance contains the ashes of RAF personnel and their spouses beneath rose beds planted with "Pot o'God" roses.

On arrival we will have mid-morning refreshments to revive us – coffee/tea and biscuits - before we start our free-flow walk-about.

We will leave here 1 o'clock to go on to Chartwell where on arrival you will be able to buy your lunch before a timed entry into Chartwell House. Picnics are allowed in certain areas.

AFTERNOON VISIT - Chartwell House

The hillside family home and garden of Sir Winston Churchill.

The house gives a chance to explore the home of one of Britain's greatest leaders. Visits to the house are self-guided and by timed tickets so you can explore at your own pace. We will be split into two groups.

The Gardens include lakes, a rose area, thriving kitchen garden and Churchill's swimming pool.

The Studio gives an insight into Winston Churchill the painter.

Chartwell is built on a hillside so the garden involves steps and slopes. The car park is 250 metres from the house with access via a sloping path and 24 shallow steps.
